IFP Readers' Choice Award 'Gold' Winner

Halton Hills, August 26th, 2021-Bennett Centre is pleased to share with the community that they are this year's Independent & Free Press Reader's Choice 'GOLD' award winner, in the Retirement /Adult Lifestyle Community category, in Halton Hills.

We are honored to have been awarded this significant recognition by the Halton Hills community. We would like to thank the community for acknowledging our great efforts in maintaining quality community engagement with our Home, especially during the last challenging year. Our staff have shown excellence in care to our residents and have successfully collaborated with families and external partners throughout the Pandemic.

"We would also like to thank our families, volunteers and community friends who have nominated us for this award. This is a tremendous honor and endorsement of our commitment to our home and residents. It is a privilege to have been voted 'Gold' in the Retirement /Adult Lifestyle Community category." Brian Clark, Board Chair

"As Family Council Co-Chairs, we are pleased to see the Halton Hills community recognizing the exceptional care and support by staff and volunteers of our loved ones at Bennett Centre Long-Term Care. They ensured our loved ones safety and wellbeing throughout the last three waves of the pandemic, and now into wave four. They are an exceptional team of professionals" Neil Hageman and Rick Stomphorst, Family Council Co-Chairs

The IFP is the community newspaper of Georgetown, Acton and several villages and hamlets which make up the Town of Halton Hills, which in turn is a part of Halton Region.

Bennett Centre Long-Term Care is part of Bennett Village, a not-for-profit organization, located in Halton Hills. We provide a friendly, homelike environment for residents, including caring staff that strive to provide family like, resident-centered care and services to residents every day.
